
Committee on Development

Public Hearing

Aid Conditionality

Monday, 20 March 2017, 15:05–17:30

Brussels

Room: ASP A1G-3

PROGRAMME

- 15:05 – 15:10 Brief introduction by Bogdan Brunon Wenta MEP
- 15:10 – 16:10 1st panel: "Aid conditionality and migration" chaired by Judith Sargentini, MEP
- 15:10 – 15:20 Anna Knoll, Head of Migration, ECDPM, Maastricht
Implications of the migration situation on ODA in Europe - Changing narratives, practices and conditionalities.
- 15:20 – 15:30 Geertrui Lanneau, Senior Regional Labour Migration and Human Development Specialist, International Organization for Migration, Brussels
Maximizing the development impact of migration through genuine partnership.
- 15:30 – 15:40 Stefano Signore, Head of Unit of Migration, Employment, Inequalities, DG DEVCO, Brussels
Development policy and migration: seizing the opportunities, addressing the challenges.
- 15:40 – 15:50 Inge Brees, Senior EU Advocacy Officer, CARE international, CONCORD Migration representative, Brussels
The migration turn in EU foreign policy and its impact on developing countries.

- 16:15 - 17:30 2nd panel: "Aid conditionality and human rights" chaired by Enrique Guerrero Salom, MEP
- 16:15 – 16:25 Filiberto Ceriani Sebregondi, Head of Development Cooperation Coordination Division, EEAS
Fundamental values in EU Development Cooperation's dialogue and instruments.
- 16:25 – 16:35 Sidney Leclercq, Doctoral Research Fellow, Université Libre de Bruxelles, Brussels
Rethinking conditionality: a new way to approach incentives & partner commitments (tbc).
- 16:35 – 16:45 Emmanuel Klimis, Research Fellow, Université Saint-Louis, Brussels
What effectiveness for aid conditionality and governance? Belgium experience with 3 case studies in Central Africa.
- 16:45 – 16:55 Rachel De Plaen, Policy Officer, CNCDD and CONCORD
Conditionnalité, aide, promotion des droits humains dans les relations UE-ACP.