

Jean Monnet Module – EU Environmental Policies and Law (POLLEN)

February 19 to March 3, 2018 – POLLEN Programme

Active Learning Forum (ALF-10h)	One month before the POLLEN Module, each participant will receive a reading assignment and will be required to post a summary of it on the ALF. Participants will also be required to actively interact with other participants throughout the Module. The Research Officer will be automatically informed when new messages are posted on the ALF and will be in charge of monitoring what is posted and of maintaining the interest and motivation of all participants in lively discussions.
--	---

Monday, Feb. 19	Tuesday, Feb. 20	Wednesday, Feb. 21	Thursday, Feb. 22	Friday, Feb. 23	Saturday, Feb. 24
14h30-15h00 – Welcome & Registrations	15h00-15h30 – Coffee Break	15h00-15h30 – Coffee Break	15h00-15h30 – Coffee Break	15h00-15h30 – Coffee Break	10h00-13h00 Training Session: How to Write a Policy Brief Prof. Amandine Orsini & Loïc Cobut, Research Officer
15h00-15h30 Welcome speech & Opening Session: Overview and Objectives - Prof. Denis Duez, President of the IEE and Prof. Amandine Orsini 15h30-17h45 Introduction to EU Environmental Law (I) Prof. Nicolas de Sadeleer	15h30-17h45 EU Environmental Law and its Level of Ambition Prof. Delphine Misonne	15h30-17h45 The EU in Multilateral Environmental Negotiations Prof. Tom Delreux	15h30-17h45 EU Climate Policy: Which Goals and Instruments for Which Policy Paradigm? Dr. Benjamin Denis	15h30-17h45 Green Power Europe? Energy Governance and Low-Carbon Development in the EU Prof. Thijs Van De Graaf
Break	Break	Break	Break	Break
18h00-19h30 Introduction to EU Environmental Law (II) Prof. Nicolas de Sadeleer	18h00-19h30 Air Pollution in Court Mr. Ugo Taddei	18h00-19h30 Un Update on Climate Change: Recent Developments and Expectations Mr. Peter Wittoeck	18h00-19h30 Environmental Lobbying in the EU Dr. David Zaruk	18h00-19h30 Euratom and the Management of Spent Fuel and Radioactive Waste - Dr. Grégoire Lits
19h30. Welcome cocktail

■ New learning technologies and assessment methods. The Module is practice-oriented since emphasis will be on developing analytical, oral and writing skills relevant for participants in their professional life.

Monday, Feb. 26	Tuesday, Feb. 27	Wednesday, Feb. 28	Thursday, March 1	Friday, March 2	Saturday, March 3
15h00-15h30 – Coffee Break	15h00-15h30 – Coffee Break	15h00-15h30 – Coffee Break	15h00-15h30 – Coffee Break	15h00-15h30 – Coffee Break	9h00-12h00 Jury Sessions/My POLLEN Talks (15min/participant). Oral presentation in front of the Jury
15h30-17h45 European Waste Management Policies Dr. Candido Garcia Molyneux	15h30-17h45 EU Chemicals and Hazardous Waste Policy Prof. Katja Biendenkopf	15h30-17h45 Payments for Ecosystem Services Prof. Tom Bauler	15h30-17h45 The Step-by-Step Integration of Environmental Concerns into the Common Agricultural Policy Dr. Tomas Garcia Azcarate	15h30-18h30 Food Sovereignty and the Right to Food in the EU Prof. Olivier De Schutter
Break	Break	Break	Break
18h00-19h30 Waste-Related Indicators: An Assessment of the Progress Towards a Circular Economy - Dr. Marco Orsini	18h00-19h30 Nanotechnologies and REACH: Perspectives for 2018 Prof. François Thoreau	18h00-19h30 The Economics of Ecosystem and Biodiversity: Approach, Potentials and Challenges Dr. Heidi Witmmer	18h00-19h30 Agriculture and Biodiversity Mr. Ariel Brunner		12h30 Farewell cocktail
					Farewell Reception

Policy Brief (20h)	It will consist of a concise summary of a particular issue containing up to 4 pages or 2500 words. It will give balanced information for policymakers and will have an attractive design and may have one or more figures. Participants will be asked to use the knowledge and skills gained during the Module to draft an original and coherent policy brief. They have to be submitted 6 weeks after My POLLEN Talks. The best briefs will be posted online.
---------------------------	--

 New learning technologies and assessment methods. The Module is practice-oriented since emphasis will be on developing analytical, oral and writing skills relevant for participants in their professional life.